

Job search keeps repeating itself

“I already told you why that role was wrong. Twice.”

Recheck the fit. Repeat your answers. Explain it again.

Then do all of it for the next role.

the Right Job

A job-search agent that learns from your decisions

A search that remembers you

Better shortlists

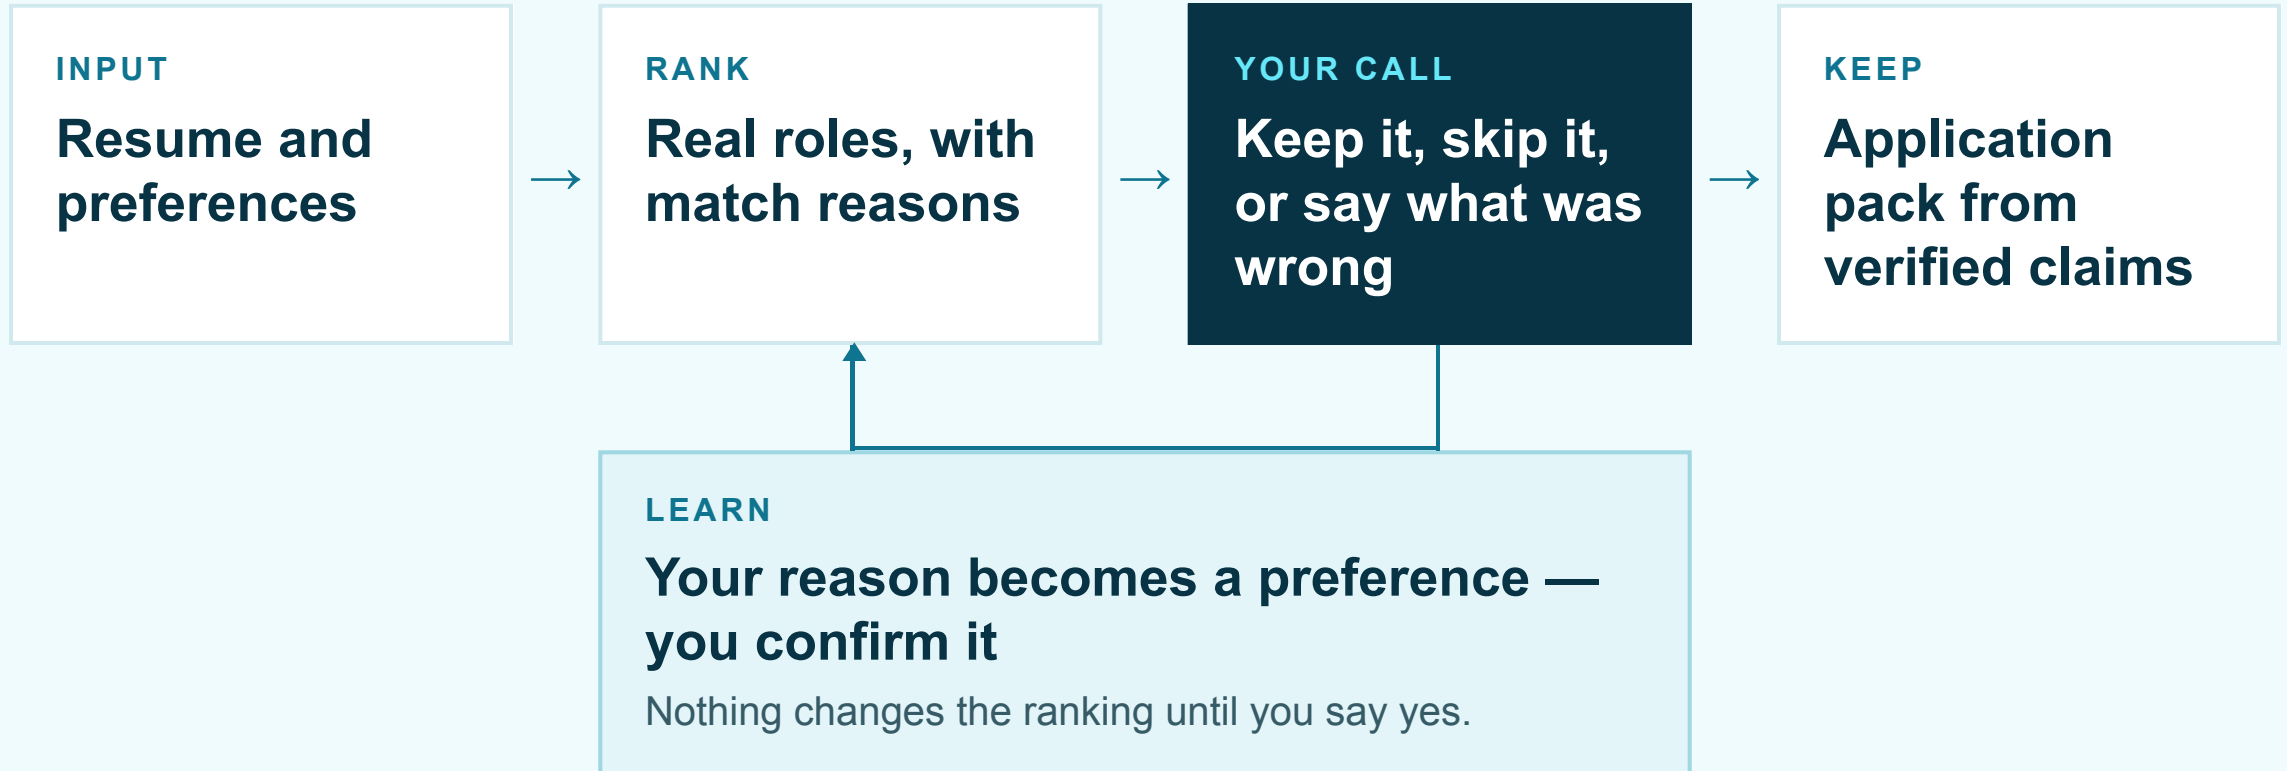

Your confirmed preferences shape the next ranking.

Less repeated work

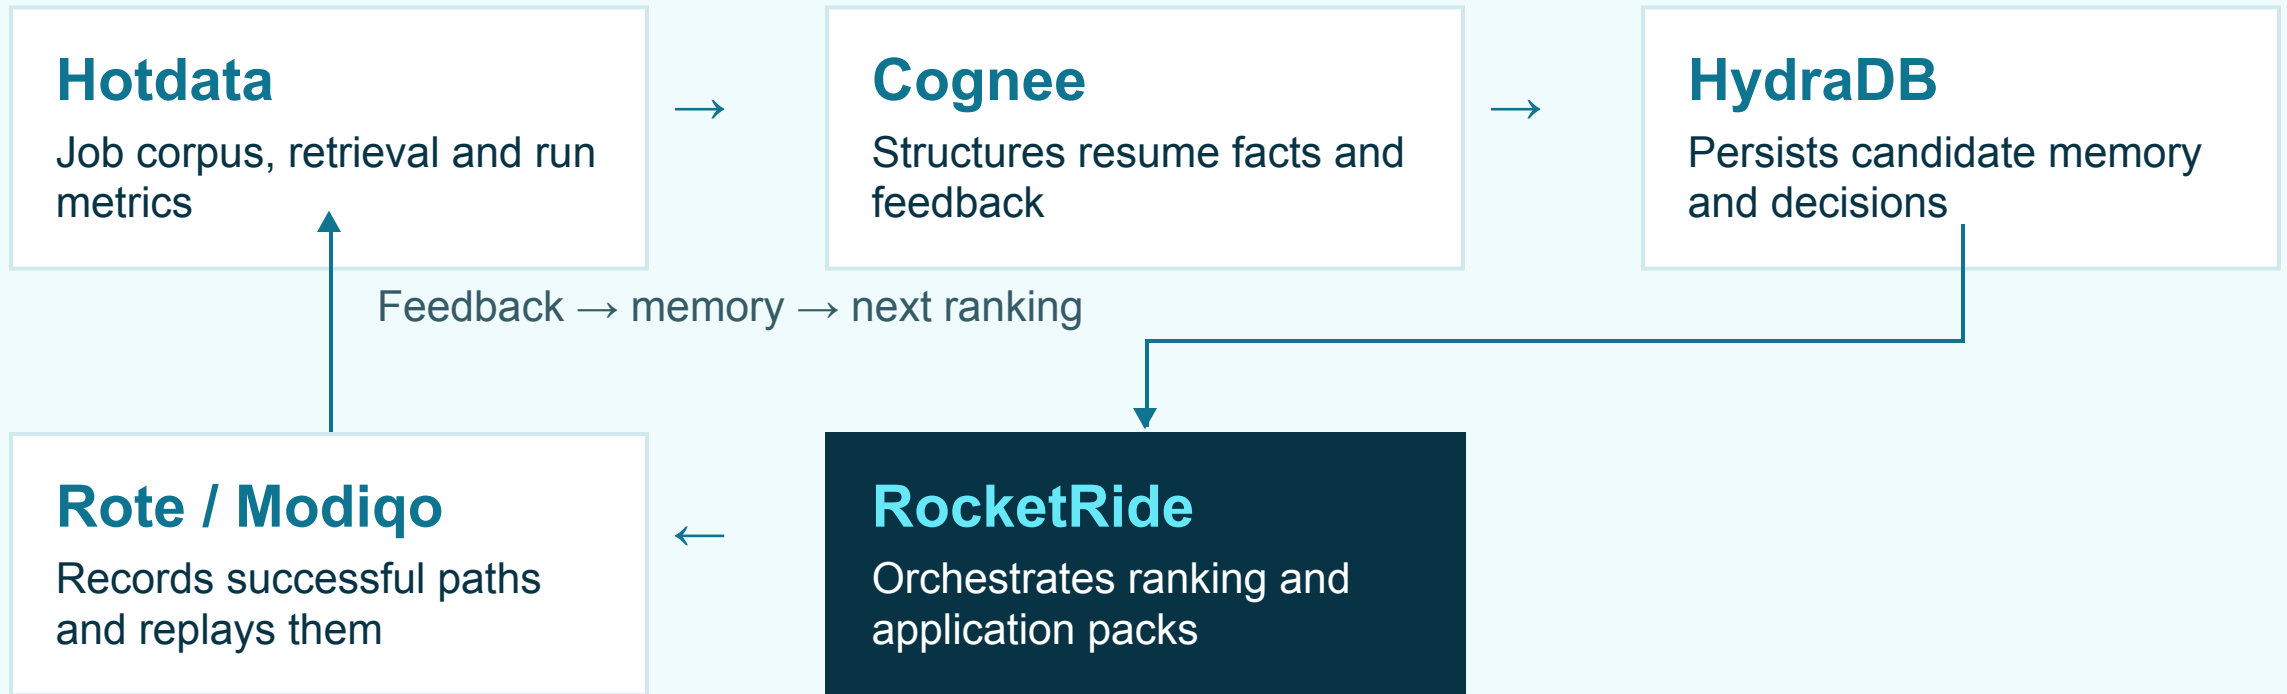

Known answers and verified facts carry into your application pack.

You confirm what it learns. You choose when to apply.
